

THE SCIENCE COUNCIL

Model Codes of Conduct

The Science Council has adopted the following Code of Professional Conduct as a model for Licensed Member Code of Conduct:

Chartered Scientists will:

- Exercise their professional skills and judgement to the best of their ability and discharge their professional responsibilities with integrity, serving as an example to others.
- Have regard at all times to the public interest.
- Do all in their power to ensure that their professional activities do not where avoidable put the health and safety of others at risk.
- When called upon to give a professional opinion, do so with objectivity and reliability.
- Never engage in corrupt practice.
- To undertake appropriate Continuing Professional Development (CPD) and be able to demonstrate this to others.
- Further the interests of and maintain the dignity and welfare of their Licensed Body and profession.

Chartered Scientists are subjected to the Code of Conduct issued by the Licensed Body through which they are registered which will include the above.